Omar is a highly accomplished legal professional with extensive experience in corporate law, real property, and financial transactions. He obtained his Bachelor of Law degree from the University of Indonesia in 2011 and later earned his Master of Laws (LL.M.) in International Business Law from Queen Mary University of London in 2017, graduating with Merit under the prestigious Indonesian Endowment Fund for Education (LPDP) scholarship.

Omar began his legal career at Hanafiah Ponggawa & Partners (HPRP)—now Dentons HPRP—one of Indonesia’s leading law firms, where he built a strong foundation in mergers and acquisitions, property transactions, foreign direct investment, and financial structuring. During his tenure, he was actively involved in major projects encompassing land acquisitions, joint ventures, and regulatory compliance for both domestic and international clients, showcasing his ability to navigate multifaceted legal frameworks with precision and commercial awareness.

In 2019, Omar advanced his career by joining CFLD International as Associate Director, where he further sharpened his expertise in real estate development, investment structuring, and corporate transactions. His role required him to manage and negotiate complex agreements related to property development, land procurement, and strategic partnerships, as well as to resolve corporate and commercial issues with a pragmatic and results-oriented approach. His balanced perspective between legal soundness and business practicality has proven instrumental in safeguarding the company’s interests while maintaining constructive relationships with stakeholders.

Omar’s professional journey reflects a blend of strategic insight, negotiation skills, and legal sophistication. His broad exposure to contract negotiation, regulatory analysis, and risk management positions him as a trusted advisor capable of delivering comprehensive legal solutions and guiding clients through intricate business challenges with clarity and confidence.
